Dear Bob -

Nothing in my life is easy. This is the story of how I missed an apparently very interesting story on tonight's news -

Spent the day in Wilkes Barre at a seminar - got home a little earlier than usual - cooked a light supper + plopped on the couch to watch the 6:00 news. First my insurance agent appeared + was so fascinated with my anarylis that I couldn't get rid of him. Then Heidi decided to play ball - after about 5 minutes I noticed several bright red blobs on my carpet. After I determined that I was all in one piece (the blobs were blood!) I
